STOCKS START WITH SHARP GAINS, Bid and Asked on FAIR DEGREE OF ACTIVITY WELL SUSTAINED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The New Year was given a fairly good opening, but before the first market was two hours old, stocks had enjoyed a most satisfactory advance, especially the leaders. Sentiment on the Street has improved very greatly and there seems to be a disposition to overlook everything but the fact that business prosperity is returning in a satisfactory manner—and that but for the Presidential election, it would be a year of opportunities.

From all sides come reports of a more encouraging character. H. C. Frick Coke Co., announce the firing of 1,500 coke ovens. W. J. Rainey Coke Co., announce the firing of 1,500 coke ovens. W. J. Rainey Coke Co., announce that all of their 3,000 ovens will be in operation in two weeks. Is9,000 pounds in December. The Southern Railroad Company is in the market for 21,000 tons of steel and the Illinois Steel Company, has orders for 2,000 tons.

From all over the country the news is favorable for industrial life and increased production.

Tariff reduction is feared to an extent but the low rates new talked of by the leader of the majority in the House way not stand either the Senate or in passing the Executive.

MRS. HUTCHINS NOW Times SOLE COMPLAINANT AGAINST TRUSTEE

Higher Prices Scored and Millionaire's Name Stricken From Record in Dante Ouster Proceedings.

There was the best kind of buying By order of Chief Justice Clabaugh of both Gas and Washington Railway, the name of Stilson Hutchins as a plain-and both were decidedly strong. "When it gets to 90 they'll get a block of my Trustee William J. Dante, was stricken Gas," said a broker the other day. The price did not touch 30, but jumped over today, leaving Mrs. Rose Keeling it to 30% for an opening, and then the Hutchins, the millionaire's wife, as the bunch being absorbed, it rose to 2014, sole complainant against Mr. Dante. this being 8 points higher than the low Mrs. Hutchins sued to remove Mrs. Hutchins sued to remove Mr following the announcement of the Dante for alleged breach of trust in

The excellent strength of these stocks lies in the earnings, in the prospects, etc. They occupied practically the entire time of the session, Railway common leading Gas in volume of trading.

There wasn't enough doing in other stocks to make the session interesting, other than in the two leaders. Mergenthaler brought 221 to 220½, and Lanston sold at 92.

The court named Nathaniel Wilson as guardian ad litem, and he recommended that the suit be dismissed so far as Mr. Hutchins was concerned, saying that it was not to his best interest that the litigation should continue.
